IF MY GLASSES ARE THE PROBLEM, WHY DOES THE COUCH LOOK PERFECTLY CLEAR?

© 2005 Scott Adams, Inc./Dist. by UFS, Inc.

GOOD QUESTION. PLEASE HOLD WHILE I TRANSFER YOU TO COUCH TECH SUPPORT.

Instead of the John I call my bathroom the Jim! That way it sounds better when I say I go to the Jim first thing every morning!!!

Insomnia is nature's way of saying you're not done bugging people for the day.

I'm not hard of hearing. I've just heard enough!

I spend my day snacking and surfing the internet for a good job. Luckily my boss hasn't noticed yet.

They say you need to listen to what your body is telling you ... but mine just points and laughs.

My doctor told me to watch my cholesterol. So now I stare at my French fries for a few seconds before I eat them.

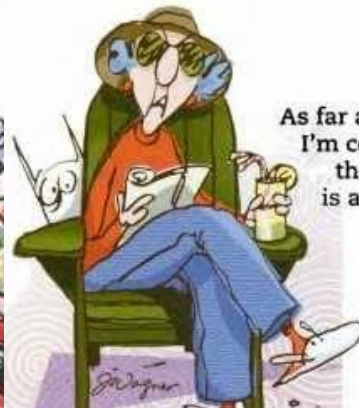

I'm prone to mood swings. Sometimes I'm grumpy, sometimes I'm grouchy, sometimes I'm crabby.

If your friends can accurately guess your age, you need to find dumber friends.

As far as I'm concerned, the perfect bra is a sweatshirt.

Jack Grad

The family of Jack Grad shares the sad news of his passing on May 18, 2023 at the age of 84.

Jack is survived by sons Keith (Laura), Kevin (Marla) and Curtis (Sally); grandchildren Krystal (Kyle), James (Becky) and Charmaine; great grandchildren Payton, Jack, Keltyn and Klancee; sisters Carolle and Kathy.

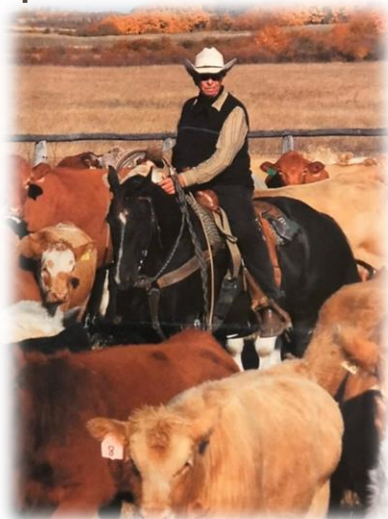

He was predeceased by his wife Shirley, parents Pauline and Henry; and brothers Russell and Murray.

Known fondly as “Grader” to his family and friends, Jack was a passionate horseman, spending a lifetime with his hands on the reins whether saddled-up or hitched to a team. He managed the Strawberry Lake Community Pasture for over 37 years, in addition to beef and grain farming, raising horses and PMU production.

Well known for befriending people of all ages and walks of life, he loved a good story and enjoyed spending time with those closest to him.

Nothing would make him happier than a gathering of friends and family to share memories of a life well-lived, so please join us for his celebration of life in the Vibank Co-Operative Community Centre on Tuesday, June 6, 2023 at 1:30 p.m. Livestreaming will be available with a link that will be posted below.

The family would like to thank the staff at William Albert House for providing Jack the highest standard for care, compassion and dignity in the final years of his life. They would also like to extend their gratitude to the staff on 4B and the Palliative team at the Pasqua Hospital and Grace Hospice.

HER JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

*Don't think of her as gone away
her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets this earth is only one.*

*Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears.
In a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.*

*Think how she must be wishing
that we could know today.
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

*And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched...
For nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.*

Friends & Family

We always enjoy company for meals from time to time, however, in the fairness to our cooks, we need 24 hours notice when planning to stay for a regular meal. If you enjoy quite frequent meals here with your family member(s), in return, we would appreciate a donation to our Resident or staff Fund.

Thank you for your consideration.
