Phila Mackechnie (Dec. 2, 1924-April 26, 2024)

A quote which best fits Phila, a well-loved resident and a teacher, who devoted her whole life for her students, "Teachers come and go from our lives but their teachings can stay with us forever." She has been with us for 8 years and will be deeply missed by her co-residents in their domino game, her love for reading and her passion for music. May she rest in peace.

Jean Golemba (May 31, 1929- May 9, 2024)

"As a well-spent day brings happy sleep, so a life well lived brings happy death." This is a quote which best fits Jean, a woman who lived her life to the fullest. She was a great mother who was frequented with visits, especially by her daughter Rita. She was a well-revered teacher for thirty years, who was truly well-loved and appreciated by her students over the years.

She will be deeply missed for brightening people's day with her smile and peaceful spirit.

STAFF CORNER

ALLEN JOSE, (PSW)

Over the past year, my journey working in HARWOOD MANOR for elderly residents has been both fulfilling and transformative. The time I spend here is incredibly rewarding. I found myself drawn to this role by a deep-seated desire to make a meaningful impact on the lives of others. The support from my colleagues has been invaluable, nurturing and fostering a collaborative and compassionate environment. The reciprocal care and respect shared with the residents have enriched my experience, making each day rewarding, deeply satisfying and meaningful.

Sandeep Kaur, (PSW)

I am delighted to express my sincere appreciation for the opportunity to work at Hardwood Manor. It has been an immense pleasure, filled with both challenges and new learning experiences. I would like to express my sincere gratitude for my Administrator, Mrs. Sharon Meena, for her invaluable assistance in facilitating our smooth transition and integration as newcomers to Canada. Her guidance and support were instrumental in helping us settle down and adapt to our new environment. Furthermore, I would like to extend my gratitude to all my colleagues for their camaraderie and assistance throughout my tenure here. Lastly, I would like to thank all the residents of house 4 for accepting me as their family member and giving me love and support
