FROM THE PRAIRIES

If you're not from the prairie, you can't know my soul.

You don't know our blizzards; you've not fought our cold.

You can't know my mind, nor even my heart.

Unless deep within you, there's somehow a part ...

A part of these things that I've said that I know.

The wind, sky, and earth, the storms and the snow.

Best say you have– then we'll be one,
For we will have shared that same blazing sun.

Our Summer so far....

Memory

Marlene

Hilltop

Sept. 21, 1938 — July 22, 2024

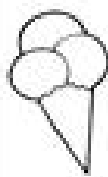

In late 2016, Marlene joined our family at Hill Top Manor. She was a good friend here at Hill Top for many years. In her early years of living here, she attended as many activities as she was able, and loved to dance at our music performances. She always had a smile on her face and her laugh was contagious. Her witty characteristics were very much enjoyed here and she will be deeply missed. Memories of her will stay with us and be shared for a long time to come.

Memories

*Life can never stay the same
No matter how we try
Our hands can never stop
The clock of life from ticking by
But love remains, unchanging
In the care of sorrowing hearts
For as the love of life is stilled
The love of memory starts*
