

HILLVIEW MANOR NEWSLETTER 2024

ISSUE TEN

Oh my goodness!!! Time needs to slow down just a little. We have reached the end of the month of October. Thankfully it has been a beautiful fall up to this point. Fingers crossed that next month is also as mild.

Music was also a big part of our monthly activities. A large group travelled to St Johns church for Make Music With Friends. This is always an enjoyable afternoon. The music never stops. Our own Shirley Andrist treated us all to an hour of classical music. She did a great job and the folks really appreciated her sharing her music with them. Keith and Gary, Wilma and Val, Caragana Ramblers also came to the Manor to provide entertainment to the folks.

On October 22nd voting polls were set up in the family room. It is so convenient for those that wish to vote. They can do it without even leaving home!

On the 23rd those that wished to go enjoyed an outing to Walmart to do a little shopping followed by lunch at Fired Up Grill. Everything was delicious.

A Halloween gathering was held on the 31st. Pictures and write up will be in next issue of newsletter

Three birthdays were celebrated in October
October 9th..... Pat Stubel
October 17th.....Joyce Beggs
October 23rd..... Ron Edwards

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO EACH ONE OF YOU

Folks born in October enjoy two spectacular birthstones to commemorate their birthdays- Opal and Tourmaline. Both of these birthstones have endless colour combinations and beautiful colouring characteristics.

October/s birth flowers are the Marigold and Cosmos. Both of which bloom from summer until the first frost in late fall. With their bright orange hue, marigolds make a festive addition to any fall themed arrangement

The Irish had a custom of carving scary faces into turnips or potatoes and placing them near doorways and windows to frighten away wandering spirits. When the Irish immigrated to America they brought this tradition with them. There they discovered that pumpkins, a fruit native to America, make for even better jack-o'-lanterns.

Young Irish and Scottish kids helped bring about the tradition of costumes. The pranksters went from dressing up as priests to putting together scary creatures intended to spook the neighbours.

Eventually the games, mischief-making and hunt for sweets all melded together into trick-or-treating and the whole thing became more about community than anything else. By the time the 20th century rolled around, it was an essentially secular holiday centered on neighbourhood get-togethers and parties

Why was the broom confused?

It didn't know which witch was which!!!

As per CEO Heather Haupstein

Unfortunately going forward family and guests are asked to please refrain from bringing animals into the Manor to visit.

Gordon K left us the end of the month. Gordon is moving to Creighton Lodge. We will miss him and wish him all the best in his new home

Why was the ghost given a ticket by the game warden?

He didn't have a "haunting" license

Halloween Story

Halloween night was _____ and _____. The wind blew restlessly through the _____ trees. The _____ children dressed as _____ clowns, _____ goblins, and _____ witches were trick-or-treating through the _____ neighborhood.

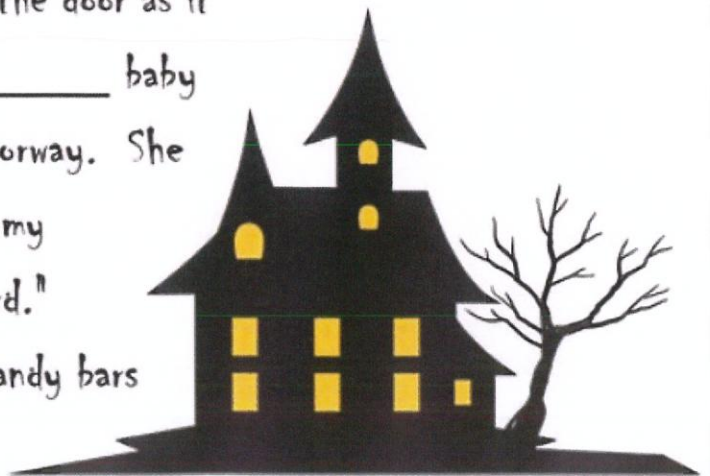

One _____ group of _____ crusaders approached the scariest house on the street. The _____ lawn was covered in _____ gravestones, _____ mummies, and _____ cobwebs. The windows of the house were _____ and _____. As the _____ crowd approached the _____ door, they could hear the _____ sounds of the pipe organ playing. A _____ fog sneaked through the cracks around the door.

One _____ child looked into the _____ eyes of the other _____ kids and asked, "Who dares to trick-or-treat at that _____ house?"

Afraid to not take the dare the _____ group approached the _____ door. They stopped on the _____ stair up to the house and together chortled, "Trick-or-treat!"

The _____ fog cascaded through the door as it slowly opened and a woman dressed as a _____ baby wearing a _____ diaper stood in the doorway. She smiled and told them, "The trick was coming to my _____ door and this treat is your reward."

She gave them each the _____ candy bars they had ever seen!

Days Gone By

" The special book upon the shelf,
Was made with many hands.
Our ancestors who posed back then,
All came from different lands.

Their pictures were all tucked away,
And rarely did we see,
The importance of these treasures-
The start of you and me.

The history of our families,
Now here in black and white.
Preserved with special care and time,
Each page is done just right.

When time permits, we take it down,
And think of days long past.
Our hopes, our dreams, our heritage,
All safe and made to last."
