Betty Helena Mary (Dodds)

Menzies passed away on Monday, February 3, 2025 at Cypress House, Swift Current with her family by her side. A Celebration of Life Service will be held on Saturday, May 17, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. at Parkside Memorial Funeral Home.

Betty was born on January 2, 1932 in her Great-Uncle Carl's house, delivered by her Great-Aunt Lily in Yorkton, Saskatchewan, arriving at 7:20 am on a bright cold day to parents Stewart Thomson Dodds and Frances Sophia (Seatter) Dodds. Six days after her birth brothers Robert and George and sister Anne named her Betty with her mom picking Helena and her dad picking Mary.

She was called Betty and occasionally Betty Boop which led to collecting Betty Boop figurines.

Nine days after her birth she went to the farm which her maternal grandfather had homesteaded in 1883, 4 miles northwest of York Settlement, Northwest Territories, now Yorkton Saskatchewan. Her family and maternal grandparents lived in a two story farmhouse. Betty enjoyed sitting on her Mom's lap after dinner listening to stories and having a few sips of tea. She spent many hours with her maternal grandmother learning to crochet and knit as they 'babysat' each other. Her mother taught her to sew, read music and play the organ. She enjoyed scrapbooking and playing board games and listening to the radio. She loved times spent with her siblings. On the farm there were always cats and a dog, horses and chickens. Betty had a favourite doll that her grandmother gave her and in her last year she enjoyed talking to that doll. She also loved her wicker doll carriage and on her 65th. Birthday, Len gave her another wicker doll carriage to hold her dolls. She collected postmarks, buttons, miniature things, and later with travel, spoons.

Betty enjoyed gardening, crocheting, traveling, journaling and coffee. In 2017 Betty started her slow decline into total dementia. Len cared for her until the very end of 2023 when she moved into Cypress House where she died peacefully February 3rd, 2025 with family by her side.

Betty was predeceased by her daughter Stacey and son David, parents Stewart and Frances (Seatter) Dodds, siblings Robert (Eva), George (Muriel) and Anne Turlock (Walter).

She is survived by her husband of 68 years Leonard, sons Bruce (Eva Resovsky) of Calgary and Craig (Teresa) of Kingston and daughter Heather (Greg) Campbell of Swift Current; grandchildren Shauna Poitras (Charlie Brown) of Red Deer, Tania Mohr of Nanaimo, Trisha Mohr (Richard Hornez Jr) of Nanaimo, Marcus Menzies (Sydney) of Calgary, Emily Menzies (Motoki Hirata) of Calgary, Nicholas Menzies (Sandi Yen) of Oxford UK, Samantha Chapman (Justin) of Kingston, Jacqueline Menzies of Inuvik, Tara Campbell of Perth, Sean Campbell of Regina; great grandchildren Thomas Klassen-Mohr and Bodhi Mohr, Tayden, Jacob and Addison Mohr, Eloise Menzies and Theo, Maeve and Felix Chapman. Brother-In-Law Clifford (Shirley) Menzies, Sister-In-Law Shirley Furze and numerous nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the staff at Cypress House, especially the caring individuals from House One and Dr. Hein DeKlerk for his loving care over the years. Funeral arrangements are in care of Parkside Memorial Funeral Home – Ryan Cappelle & Hayden Cappelle.

Jeanine Wiebe Obituary

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Jeanine Wiebe, a beloved mother, grandmother, aunt, sister, and friend, on February 16, 2025. Born on May 29, 1944, Jeanine lived a life filled with love, kindness, and laughter.

In her final years at Cypress House, and more recently at The Meadows, Jeanine became known as a true ray of sunshine. Her infectious humor and caring nature earned her endearing titles like “angel” and “incredible lady.” Always quick with a joke and a smile, she brightened the days of all who knew her.

Jeanine was deeply cherished by her family, and nothing brought her more joy than time spent with her loved ones, especially her grandchildren. She took great pride in their accomplishments and was always eager to celebrate their milestones.

During her time at the family home, Jeanine welcomed every holiday with open arms. Her kitchen was always full, ensuring that no one left hungry and that everyone took home leftovers to enjoy later.

She loved to sew, and one of her most recent projects—unfortunately left unfinished—was working on purses for each of her granddaughters. Her sister, Norma, and sister-in-law, Carol, will continue to work on completing the purses in her memory. Another of Jeanine's more recent hobbies was managing the 'herding' of cats at Cypress House. With a mischievous grin, she'd lure them into the elevator, sending them to any floor but hers, or keep them in check with her trusty water bottle, always by her side.

Jeanine had a remarkable ability to remember and celebrate the important moments in the lives of those she loved. She would write notes on whatever she could find—gum wrappers, notebooks, random pieces of paper—jotting down birthdays, anniversaries, and special occasions. These small but meaningful gestures were scattered throughout her room (and I mean everywhere), a quiet reminder of her love and care for those closest to her.

Jeanine is survived by her son, Travis (Terra); daughters-in-law, Lori Anne Kendell Nelson and Sharna Wiebe; grandchildren, Kristine Gates (Nathan), Keane, Ryan

Nelson, Shaylena, Makenna, Rya, and Aspen; six great-grandchildren; her siblings, Terry Dyck, Norma Neufeld, Jim Dyck (Mim), and John Dyck (Carol) along with many others whose lives she touched.

Jeanine was predeceased by her husband, Johnny; sons Kevin and Trevor; grandchildren, Tyler and Brock; and her parents Pete and Edith Dyck.

Our family is deeply grateful to the staff at Cypress House and The Meadows for their compassionate care during her time there.

A burial service to celebrate Jeanine's life will be held at a later date, once the Saskatchewan weather permits. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to a charity of your choice in Jeanine's memory.
